MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR

2009 CRAFT DAY—CORNHILL VILLAGE HALL

This bi-annual event was, once again, a great success. Organiser and exhibitor Ailsa Dickson, pictured left with some of her wonderful quilts, brought together craft exhibits from the village and beyond.

Proceeds raised, £356, were donated to the charity Mary's Meals who pay to provide meals for school children in developing countries. Nancy Clark, Katie Telford, Ailsa Dickson and others donated 14 lovely quilts to the Linus Fund, who provide quilts to children and young people who have suffered a trauma in their lives.

2009 Poppy Appeal

This year Nancy Clark collected £61.34p and Edna Jeffrey collected £64.83p. Brilliant as always. Thanks to everyone for their generosity. Regionally, £2997+ was collected.

CHRISTMAS STARTS HERE

This year Mary and Joseph and their donkey are travelling through Cornhill enroute to Bethlehem. Watch out for them before they arrive at your Parish church, St Helen's, for the 6.30p.m. Carol Service on Christmas Eve after which they may find a room at our local Inn, the Collingwood Arms.

Another first for Cornhill is the Christingle service at St. Helen's on December 20th at 3.30p.m. The day before, Saturday 19th, the church will be open between 10.00 and noon for a craft workshop where we will make the Christingles and other Christmas decorations.

All welcome, £1 charge includes tea, coffee, juice and biscuits and all materials
