St. George's Day Service and Parade

The location of the St. George's Day Service and Parade goes around the 7 (currently) locations in the South District of North Northumberland and in 2009 it was the turn of Cornhill. Steve Wright, Leader of the Cornhill Group, was the main organiser. In addition to Cornhill, groups attending were, Belford, Berwick, Chatton, Ford & Etal, Norham and Spittal. The parade was lead by the Berwick Royal British Legion Pipe Band. During the church service local youngsters took the readings and some of the prayers and all of the members of the Scout Movement present renewed their Promises. Guests included Lord Joicey, Sir Alan Beith and Baroness Maddock, The Sheriff of Berwick and his lady Mr and Mrs Herdman, Mr and Mrs Conway Berwick Rotary Int. and Gwyn McKenzie Scout County Commissioner for Northumberland. Refreshments were provided by local people and served by the Cornhill WI.
